

Maternity home for Dunkura

Story: Joseph Kyei-Boateng, Dunkura

A GERMANY-BASED non-governmental Organisation (NGO), Madamfo Ghana e.V Foundation which has been embarking on sanitation and educational projects in Ghana, has built a maternity home for the people of Dunkura in the Bosome-Freho District, in the Ashanti Region at the cost of GH¢120,000.

The facility is expected to help fight maternal deaths in Dunkura and its adjoining communities.

The Chief Executive of the foundation, Nana Anim Korkor, known in private life as Ms Bertina Landgrafe, inaugurated the project and commended the sponsors for making the dream come true.

The Bosome-Freho District Health Director, Madam Leticia Ayei Diabene, expressed gratitude to the foundation for the maternity home.

She appealed to the citizens of the area to maintain the facility.

The Bosome-Freho District Director of Health, Dr Clement Nti Boateng, educated the people on family planning.

Mr Emmanuel Stephenson, the Country Director of the foundation, also commended the citizens for their support which made it possible for the foundation to embark on the project.

In a related development, Nana Korkor has launched her 10th anniversary celebration as the Nkosuo Hema of Apewu.

• Nana Anim Korkor (middle) cutting the tape during the inaugural ceremony of the maternity home